

LANE COUNTY HISTORY MUSEUM COLORING BOOK

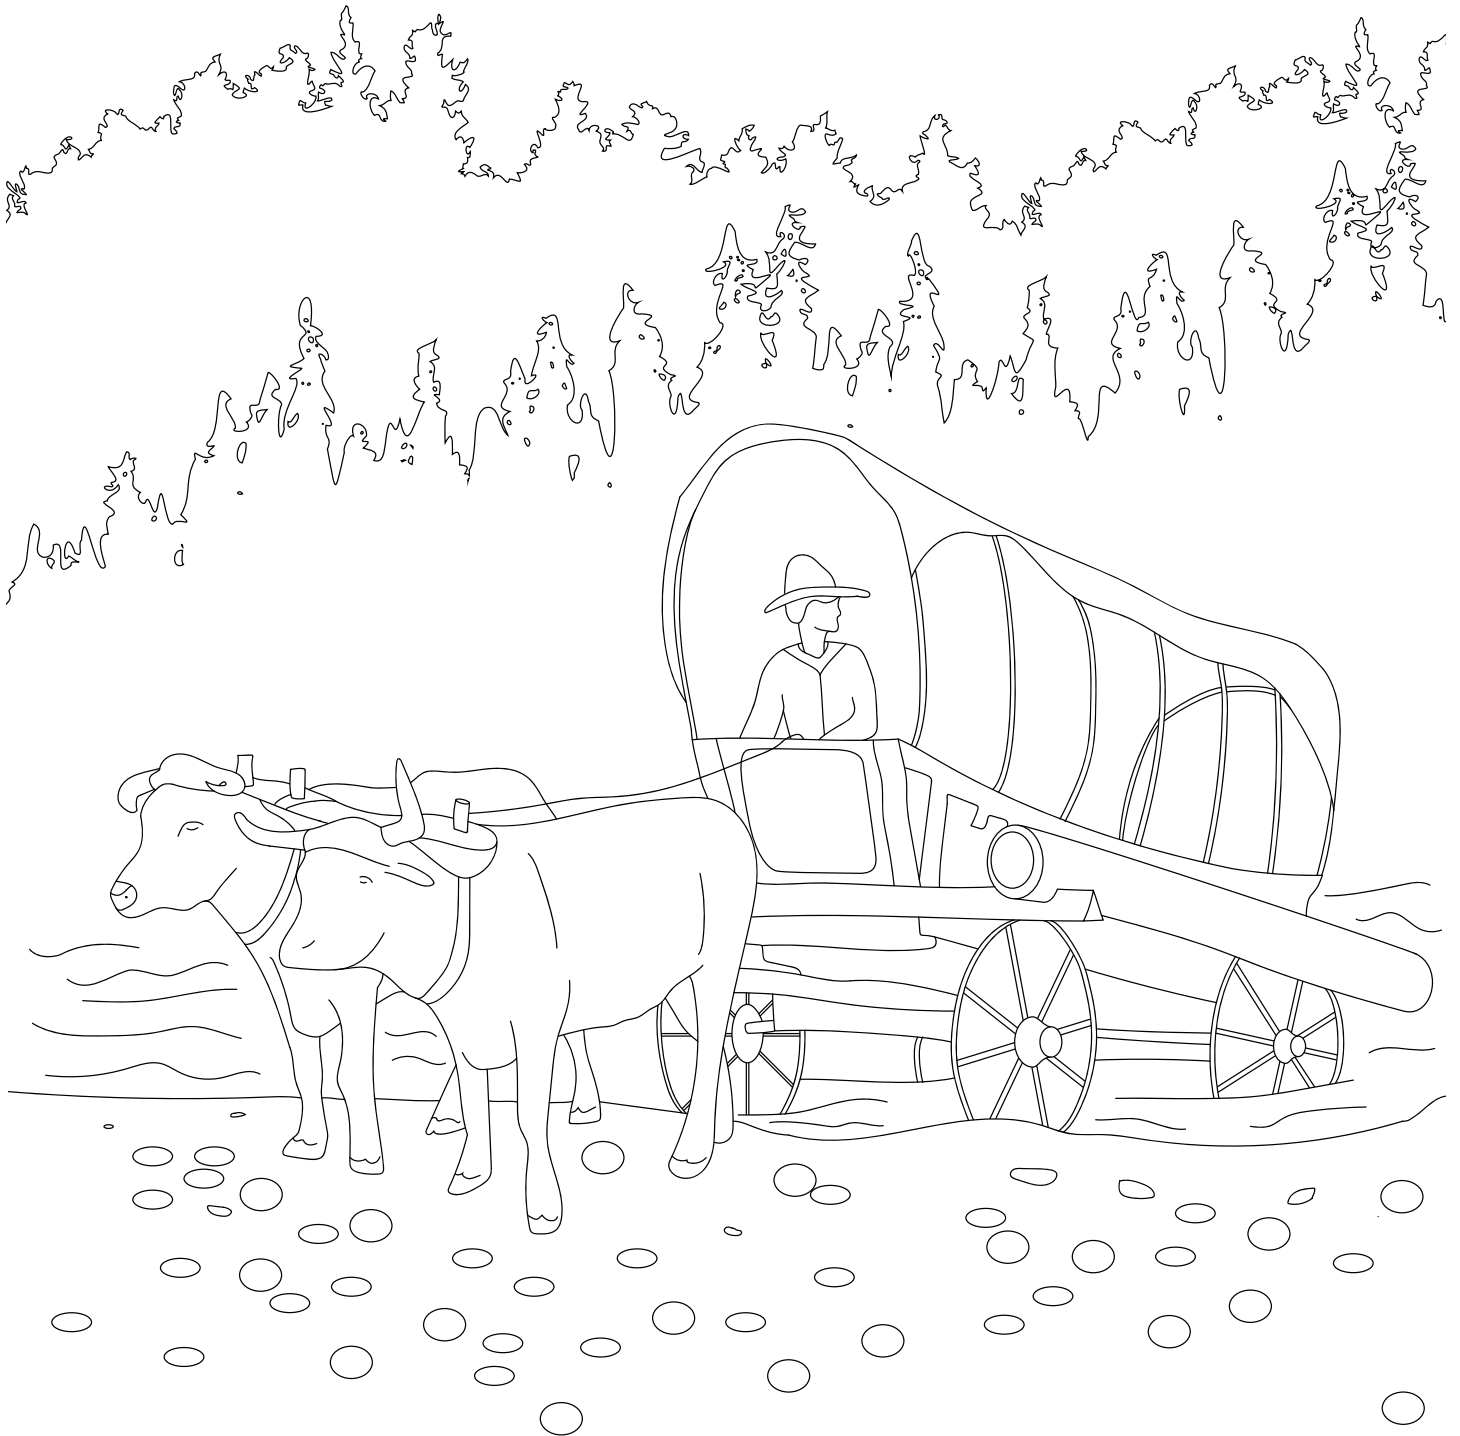

TRANSPORTATION

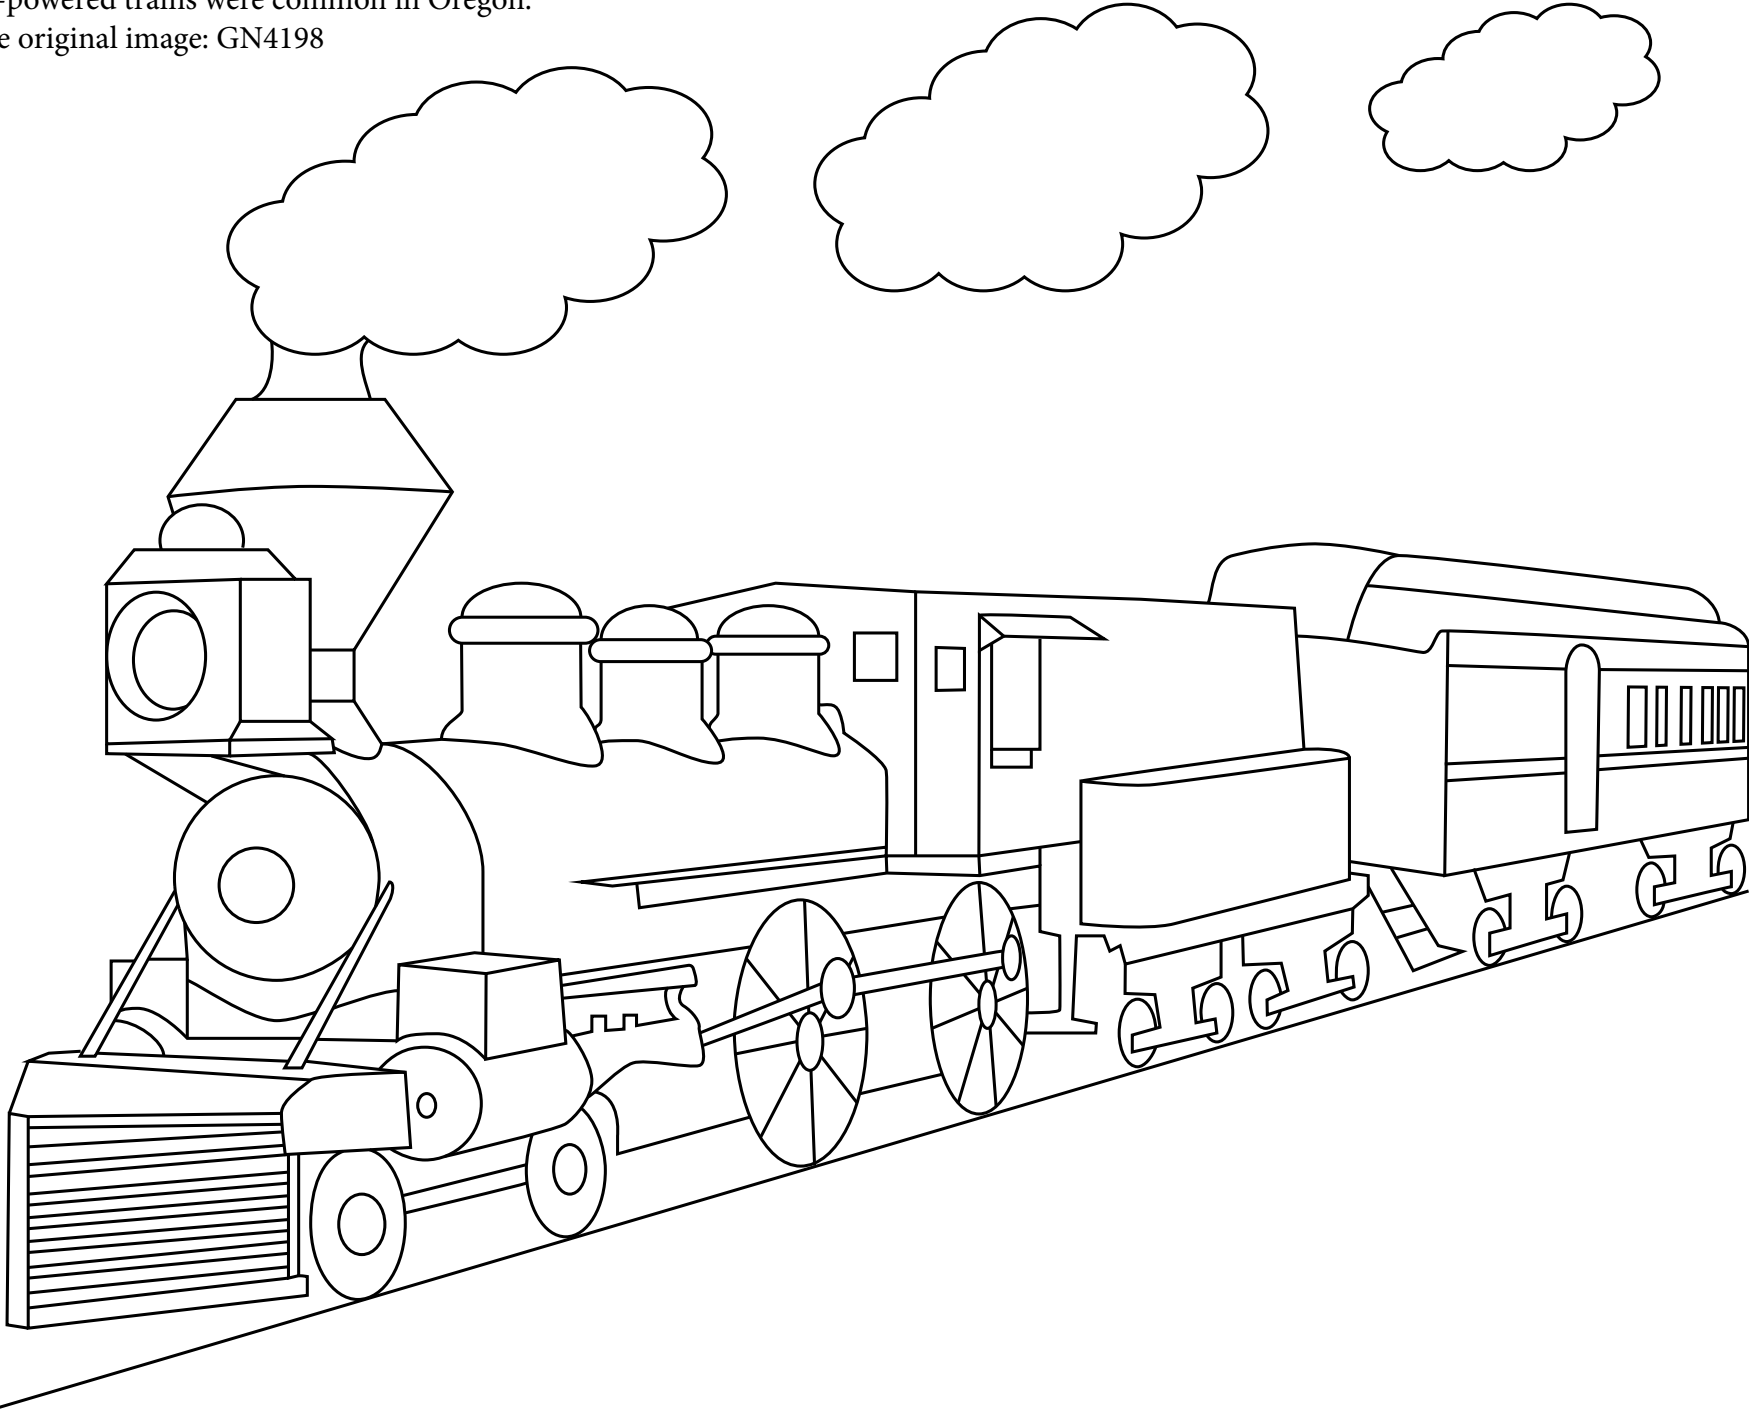

Prairie Schooner

This smaller relative of the covered wagon is well suited for the changing elevations of Oregon. This specific wagon was used in the Oregon Trail Pageant.

See the original image: GN4078, c. 1926

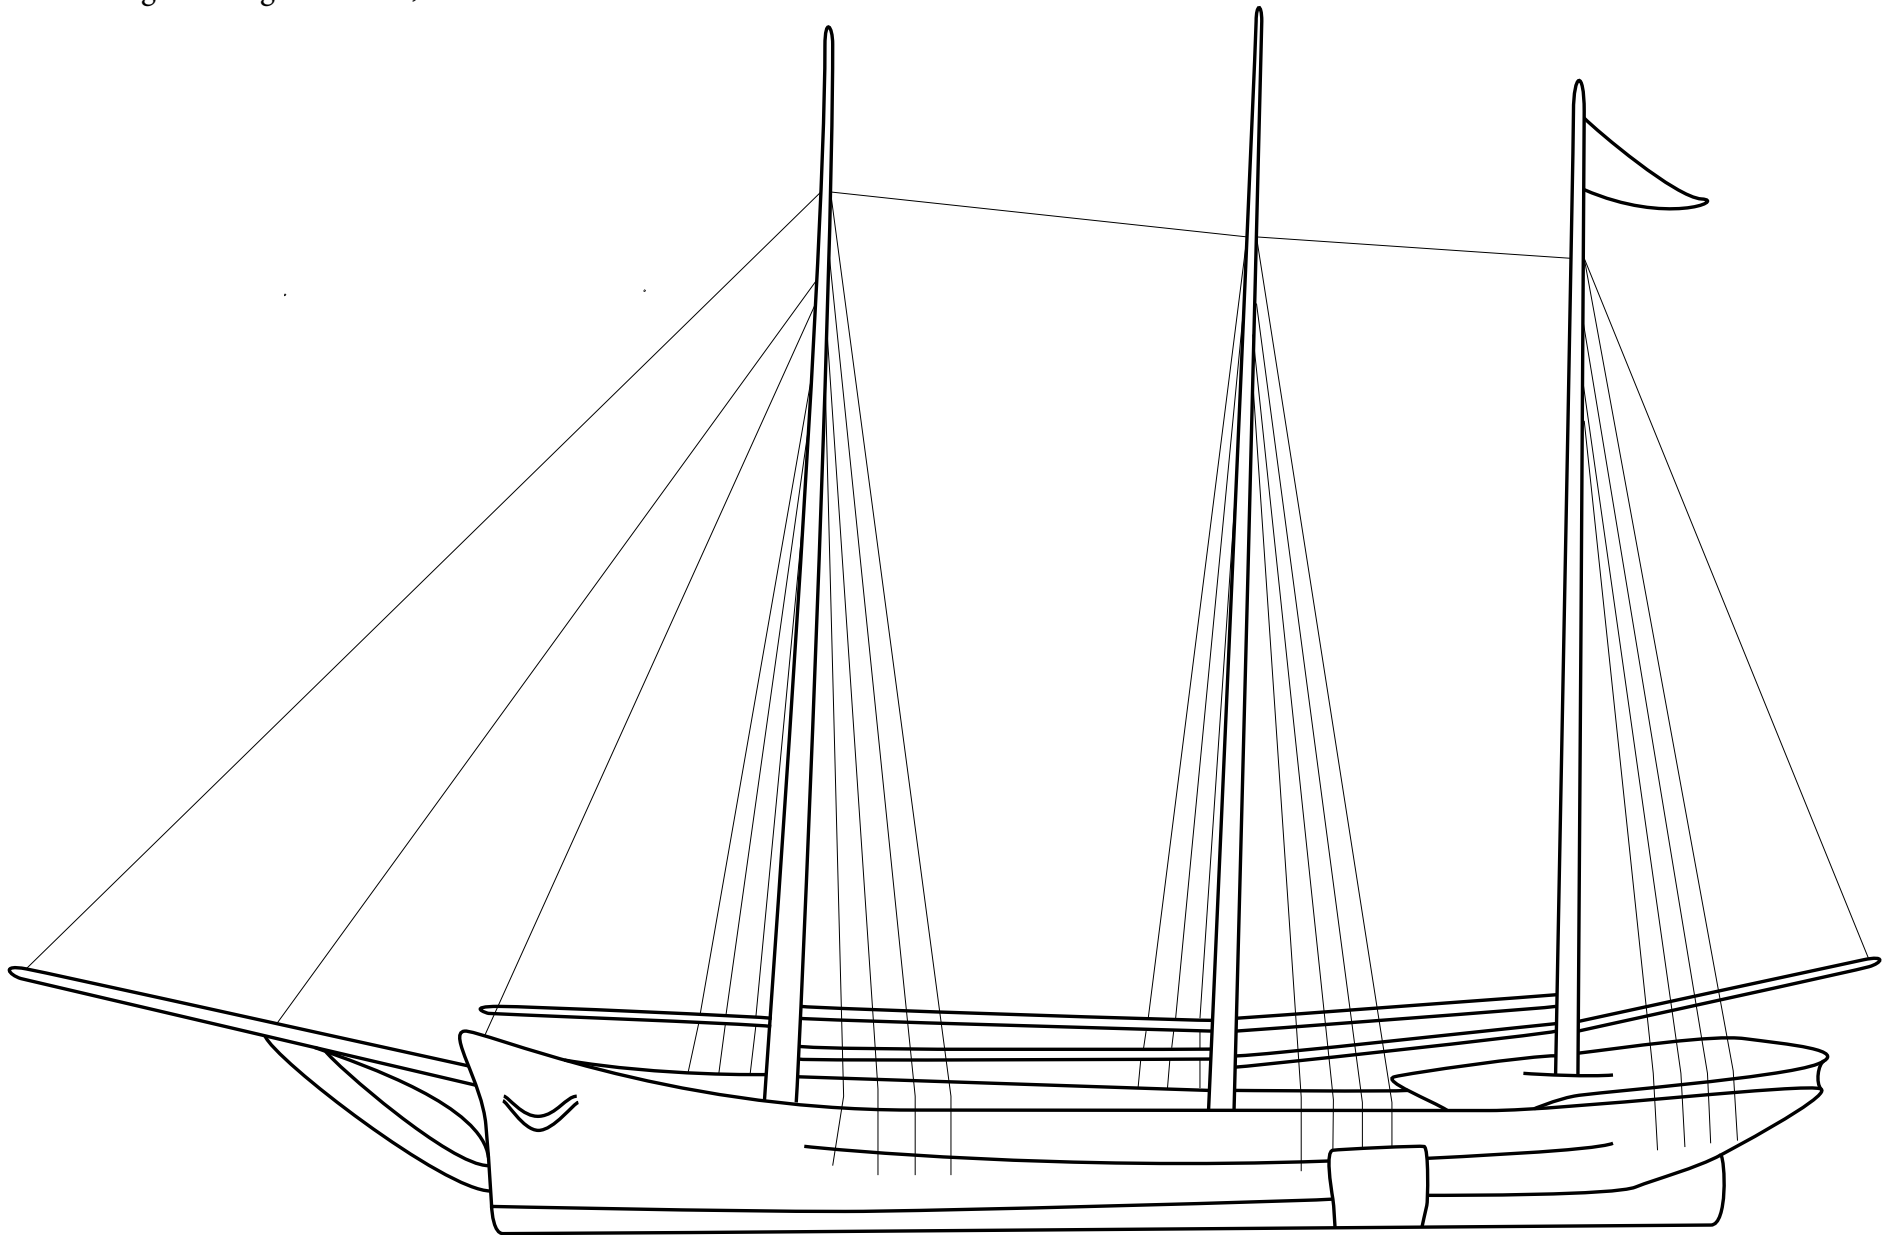

Wood-powered trains were common in Oregon.
See the original image: GN4198

Schooner

This sailing ship was used for moving people and cargo.

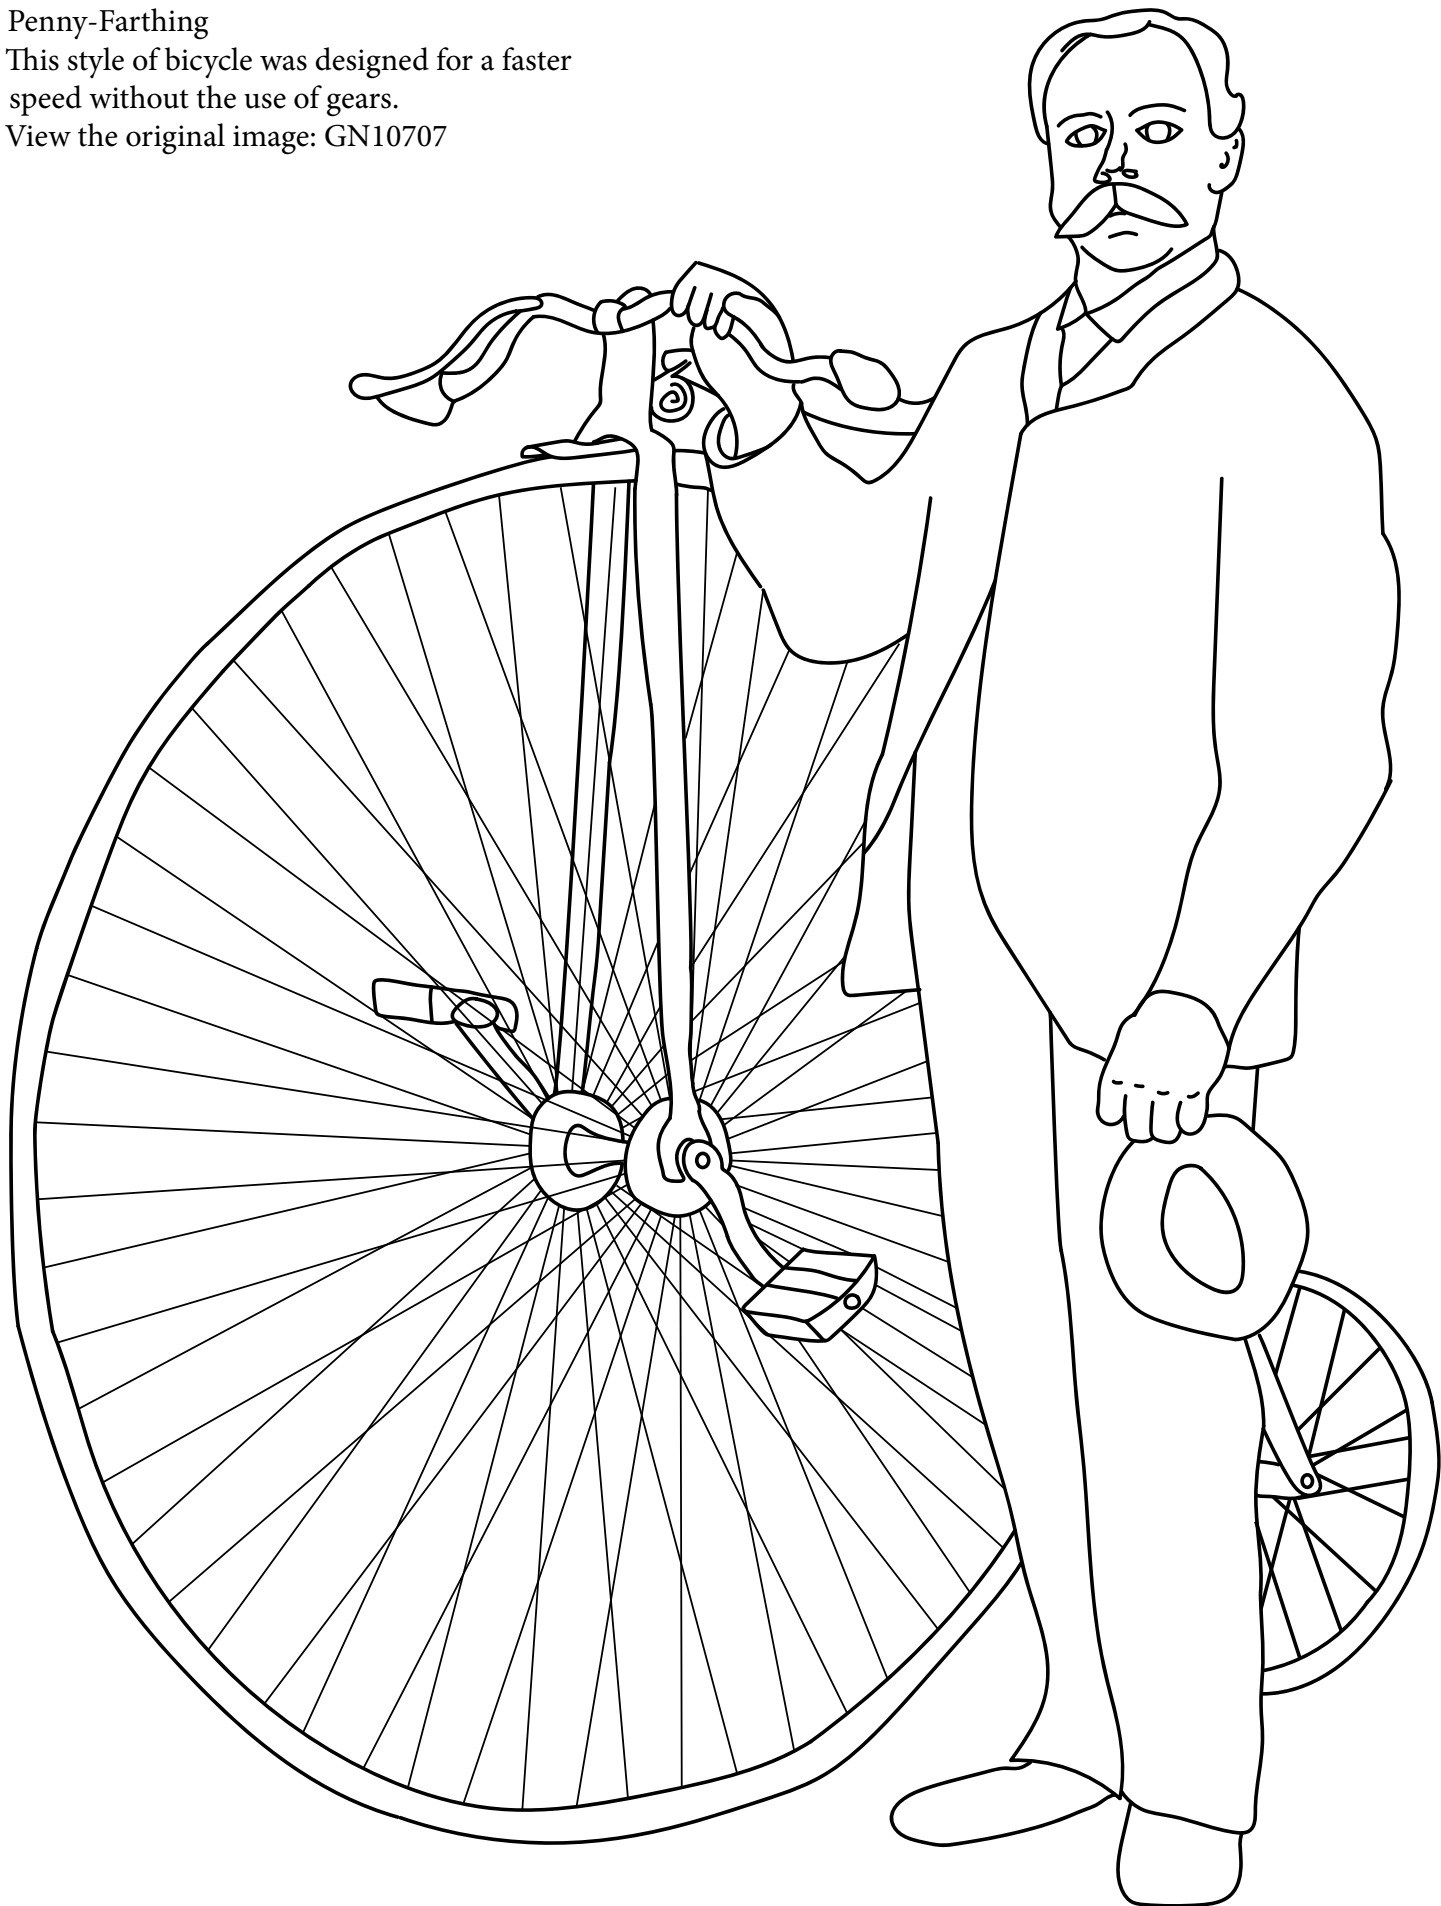

View the original image: GN3592, c. 1910's

Penny-Farthing

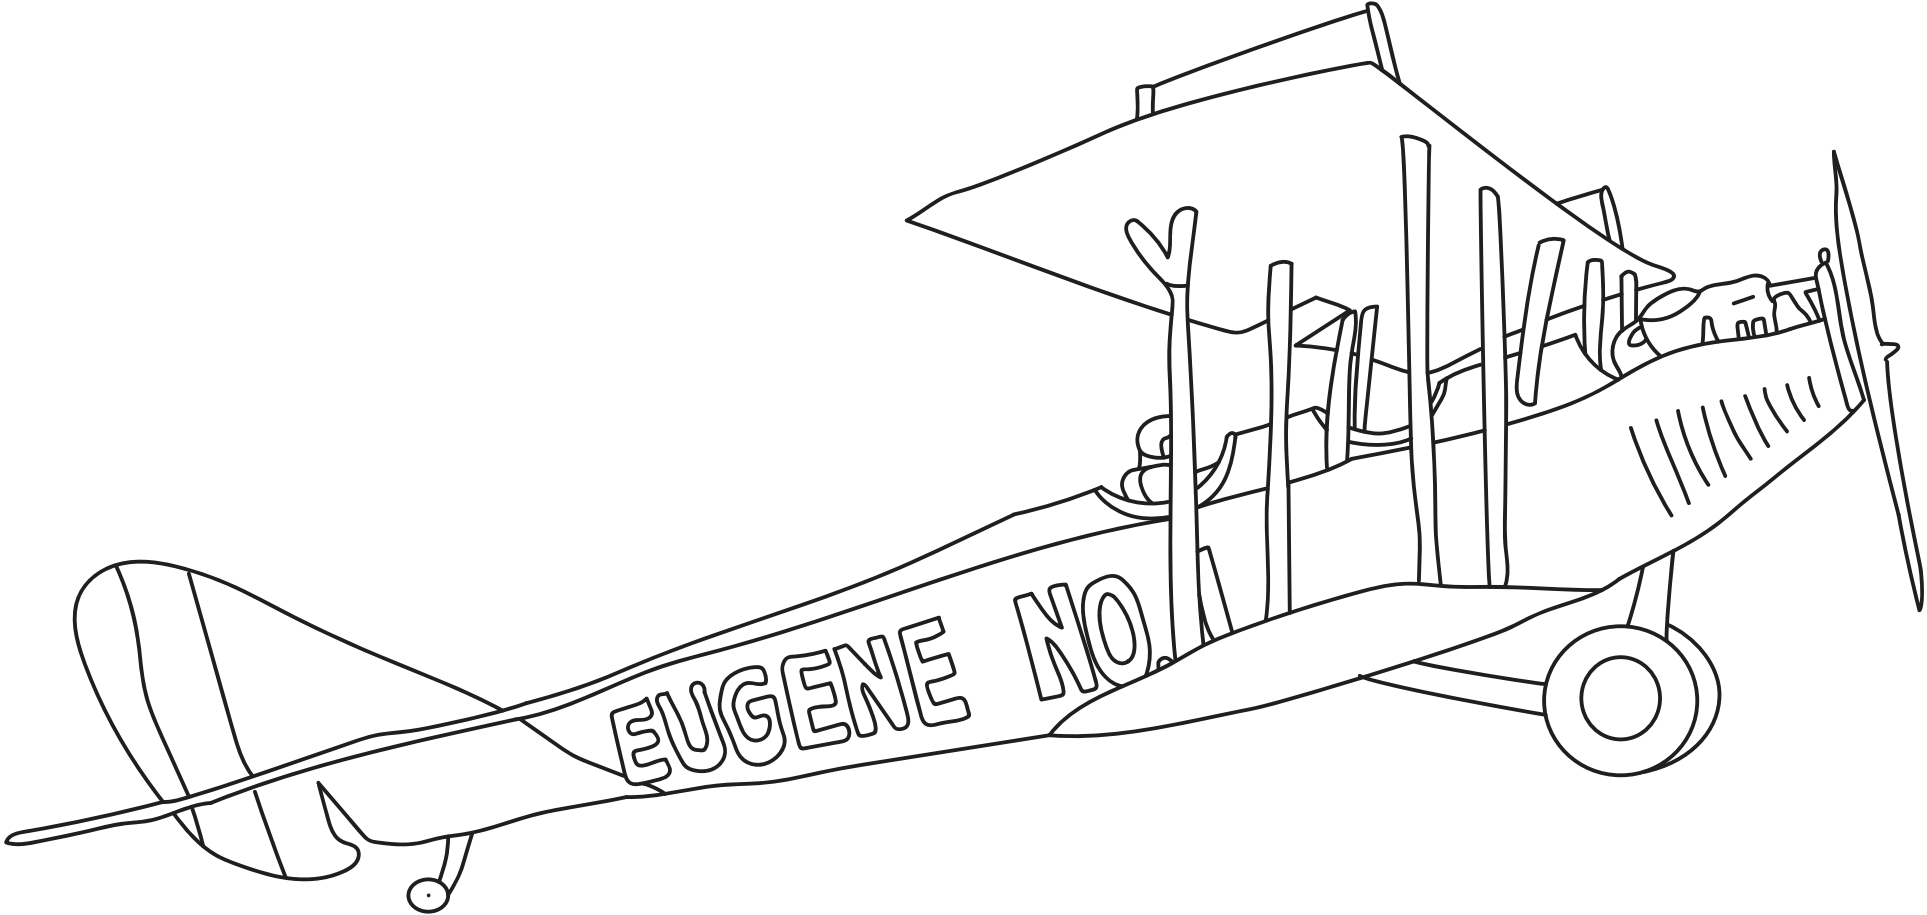

This style of bicycle was designed for a faster speed without the use of gears.

View the original image: GN10707

Biplane

View the original image: GN4613, c.1920

Automobile

View the original image: KE1520, May 26, 1932

