

For appointment to the inaugural LCHS Advisory Council:

Melvin Aikens

- Professor Emeritus, UO Dept. of Anthropology
- Member, Board of Trustees, High Desert Museum, 2004-2011
- Director, UO Museum of Natural and Cultural History, 1996-2005
- Curator of Archaeology, Oregon State Museum of Anthropology, 1978-2005
- Curator, University of Utah Museum of Anthropology, 1963-1966

Mark Harris

- Retired Drug Counselor, Lane Community College
- Maroon griot, African American indigenous healer, historian, diplomat, musician, and poet
- Co-creator with Cherri Turpin of “I, Too, Am Eugene,” a local multicultural history project
- (recipient of an LCHS 2020 History Excellence award)

Yvonne Fasold

- Active Member of the American Rosie the Riveter Association
- Retired professional educator, local public schools, 40 year veteran
  - Sheldon High School teacher- language arts, writing and interdisciplinary classes, 27 year veteran
- Special interest- multiple intelligences

Alice Parman

- Museum educator, Field Museum, Chicago; museum director, University of Oregon Museum of Natural History
- Exhibit design firm planner/writer, Formations, Inc. (Portland, OR)
- Independent interpretive and strategic planning consultant, 2003-2020
- Co-author, Exhibit Makeovers: A Do-it Yourself Workbook for Small Museums
- Past president, LCHS Board of Directors, 2011-13